BioSpectrum: From Molecules to Ecosystems

AN EDITED BOOK WITH ISBN E ISBN DOI

ABOUT THE BOOK

The double-blind peer-reviewed book is aimed to be a compilation of contemporary scientific research work across various disciplines of Life Sciences. This book shall be of great help to researchers, academicians and students alike as it will serve as a forward push for scientific understanding. In addition, this book shall also bridge the gap between disparate sub-disciplines and offer a centralized roadmap for future studies.

MAJOR THEMES / TOPICS
